KUMASI TECHNICAL UNIVERSITY CRITERIA FOR APPOINTMENTS AND PROMOTIONS

‘SENIOR MEMBERS’

1.0 Introduction

The purpose of this policy is for the Appointments and Promotions of Teaching and Non-Teaching Senior Members of Kumasi Technical University to be in tune with the Scheme of Service of the Technical University.

These criteria, among others, are to help:

• Facilitate the appointments and promotions of Senior Members

• Grade Senior Members according to their qualifications and experiences.

• Recognize and reward sustained excellence and scholarship.

• Ensure that appointments and promotions are considered only on merit.

• Ensure that appointments and promotions are transparent, fair and consistent with the principles of equal opportunity without regard to sex, ethnicity, age, disability, cultural background, religion, and membership of trade union or by nature of their contract.

The Statutes of Kumasi Technical University provide some procedures for appointment and promotion of Staff, however this policy will streamline appointments and promotions within the University. There shall be a University Appointments and Promotions Board whose composition and functions shall be as prescribed in the Statutes of KsTU.
2.0 Criteria for Appointments and Promotions of Senior Members (Teaching)

Appointments and promotions of Senior Members (Teaching) shall follow the criteria below.

2.1 Assessable Areas for Appointments and Promotions

2.1.1 Appointments

Applicants for appointment shall be assessed on:

i. Qualification

ii. Experience

iii. Appearance

iv. General Knowledge

v. Reliability

vi. Background

vii. Aptitude.

At each level of assessment the following will be checked:

i. Quality and impact of research output

ii. Satisfactory promotion of scholarly work

iii. Qualitative contribution to discipline/profession

iv. Quality and effectiveness of teaching and contribution to all aspects of teaching and learning

v. Demonstrated leadership in discipline/profession, and community.
2.1.2 Procedure and Criteria for Promotion

Subject to the provisions dealing with basic qualifications, Senior Members applying for promotion will be evaluated on the basis of:

i. Teaching

ii. Research, Scholarly and Innovation works

iii. Community Service (University and Public)

iv. Professional Activities

(i) Teaching

(a) Where teaching is the primary and core duty of a senior member, the candidate for promotion shall be required to demonstrate an ability to teach effectively in addition to his /her other responsibilities.

(b) In judging a candidate ‘s effectiveness in teaching, the appointing authority shall consider the candidate’s command of the subject; continuous growth in the field; ability to organize and present materials with clarity; ability to excite intellectual curiosity in the students and to stimulate advanced-students to original work; and the extent of skill of participation in the general guidance/ counseling of students.

(c) The Appointing Authority is required to consider the following factors and criteria in the evaluation of teaching performance:

• demonstrated competence in the subject matter in the classroom and public presentations, including seminars, colloquia, conferences and inter-faculty lectures;
• effectiveness in the development and use of innovative methods in teaching;
• guidance and leadership in student activities;
• initiation and participation in curriculum development (e.g. introduction of new courses or programmes);
• authoring of textbooks;
• effectiveness in supervising research projects and graduate students; and
• teaching load.

(d) The Academic Board shall develop appropriate weights to be attached to each of the above criteria subject to the approval of Council.

(ii) Research, Scholarly and Innovation Works

(a) For purposes of appointment and promotion of senior members, the appointing authority shall take account of research and creative scholarship of demonstrable quality. Evidence of research and scholarship should be based upon the senior member’s published research in refereed journals, conference proceedings, monographs, technical reports or an original professional work such as architectural or engineering designs, computer software or film or drama productions or other creative works.

(b) In the evaluation of a candidate’s research and scholarly contribution, the following shall be recognised:

• Independent Research: This is based upon the candidate’s own interests and needs;
• University Sponsored Research: This is research based on specific areas of interest of the University.
• Published Text and Reference Books: This is research aimed at publishing textbooks and reference questions. The research may be either basic or applied;

• Contract Research: This is research based upon the needs and interests of an external client materials and includes translation of specialized scientific and scholarly works, reviews of rare books and published research by scientific societies approved by the Academic Board;

• Inventions and Novelties: This research consists mainly in scientific inventions or new discoveries which have been patented by the researcher or the University with recognised patent agencies in any part of the world.

(c) The appointing authority shall also consider the following in the evaluation of a senior member’s research and scholarly accomplishments:

• Contributions in the area of coordination of knowledge such as survey articles and books reviews;

• Service on editorial boards of scholarly journals;

• Membership of technical committees of international or national conferences or symposia;

• Technical reports authored;

• Prizes and awards received for scholarly achievement; and

• High level consulting work.

(d) For purposes of this section, publication shall mean:

• Papers in internationally recognized refereed journals;

• Papers in refereed proceedings in international conferences and specialized symposia
• Refereed, published or accepted-for-publication technical reports from specialised university research centres or other internationally recognized research and policy institutions;
• Refereed textbooks and reference books;
• Refereed authentication review of rare books;
• Refereed translation of specialized scientific books and other scholarly works;
• Refereed books and research reports published by scientific societies approved by the Academic Board;
• Inventions and novelties that patents from recognized patent agencies approved by the Academic Board; and
• Distinguished creative activities in accordance with criteria approved by the Academic Board.

(e) In the evaluation of books, articles, technical reports, inventions and novelties and other scholarly works accepted as publication, the key ingredient should be significance not volume. The faculty/evaluator is required to judge the significance of publication by ensuring that it is done in approved faculty peer reviewed journals. In the case of a textbook it should have been published by a recognized publisher.

(iii) Community Service (University and Public)

The appointing authority shall give due recognition to and take account of the contribution of a Senior Member to the University, and the public:

(a) In the case of service to the University, account shall be taken of a senior member’s contribution to the administration and development of his/her Department, Faculty or Institute including but not limited to effective participation in committee work within the Department, Faculty and University at large.

(b) Service rendered by a senior member to the local (non-university) community and the country, both in their special capacities as scholars and in areas beyond these special capacities when the work done is at a sufficiently high level and quality, shall likewise be recognized in the promotion process. These may include organizing short courses, national or international conferences, seminars, workshops, technical projects, authoring articles for the general public, translations, identifying needs and elaborating coherent training programmes in some areas of expertise, as well as establishing a link for technical cooperation between the University and other institutions in specific areas of expertise.

(iv) Professional Activities
